SUPREME HEADQUARTERS

TERNS, Allied Expeditionary
Force, June 28.—Allied armored and infantry forces drove forward in Normandy today to a point less than six miles southwest of the vital German base of Caen in a smashing assault aimed at capturing the important rail and road hub on the main Cherbourg-Paris railway 115 miles from the occupied
French capital.

The British and Canadian troops of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery continued to advance after widening the breach smashed in Nazi positions southwest of Tilly-sur-Seulles to hinge ahead and cut the strategic Villers-Bocage to Caen highway and occupy Tourville, six miles southwest of Caen.

Tourville, on highway 175, a half mile from the river Odon which spearhead forces already are reported to have crossed, is situated eight miles southeast of Tilly. The German agency DNB admitted that Nazi troops had been forced to withdraw several miles on the Bauray-Tilly front.

ROBOT SITES ARE AGAIN BLASTED

By JOSEPH THOMAS

LONDON, June 28.—United States Fortresses and Liberators, attacking in strength, heavily blasted three German airfields in France, railway yards at Saarbrücken, Germany, and other military targets in the vicinity of Paris and Leam.

The American Armadas hammered at the Germans in support of Allied troops battling in Normandy after the RAP sent well over 1,000 heavy bombers and Mosquitoes over northern France during the night to smash rail centers and other objectives.

The heavy bombers of the U. S. Eighth Air Force were accompanied in their strikes against the airfields.

Meanwhile, Manpower Chief Paul V. McNutt emphasizes that compulsory assignment of workers to jobs is not contemplated in the recruitment of male labor under the WMC's national priority system beginning July 1. McNutt says workers subject to priority referral must be given, to the greatest degree consistent with war needs, freedom of choice as to the job they wish to accept. Employers, he adds, should be accorded the same freedom in selecting workers.

By JAMES L. KILGALLIN

ROME, June 28.—American armored and infantry forces, advancing against increased resistance from reinforced German troops, seized five more towns in their drive toward the enemy's "Gothic line" in Italy, headquarters reported today.

Battle-toughened U. S. infantrymen of the Fifth Army occupied San Vincenzo, 12 miles north of the Tyrrhenian coastal town of Piombino. Doughboys also mopped up German resistance in Belvedere and moved over rugged terrain to seize Sassetta, six miles inland.

Tanks Drive Ahead
Tanks of Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark's force, in their drive toward the historic city of Siena, captured Chiusdino and Travale.

Two more towns were occupied by the British Eighth Army which advanced west and southwest of Lake Trasimeno. These communities were Grotte and Porto. East of the lake the Nazis hold Magione "in force."

U. S. Casualties Since Invasion

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS Allied Expeditionary Forces, June 28.—(INS)—American casualties in the invasion of Normandy from D-Day, June 6 to June 26, inclusive totaled 24,162 killed, wounded and missing. General Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters reported today.

Of the American casualties 3,082 were killed, 13,121 wounded and 7,959 were reported missing. British casualties totaled 1,842 killed, 8,599 wounded and 3,131 missing, while Canadian losses were 363 killed, 1,359 wounded and 1,093 missing.

Thousands Of Nazis Facing Encirclement

Red Army Columns Smash
Ahead In White Russia
Offensive Drives

MOVING TOWARD BASTION OF MINSK

By NATALIA KENE
U.S. Staff Correspondent

MOSCOW, June 28.—Red army assault columns, smashing rough-shod over German defenses in White Russia in offensive drives which threatened encirclement of hundreds of thousands of Nazis, pressed forward today to within less than 70 miles of the major enemy bastion of Minsk on the main line to Warsaw.

The Soviet onslaught threatened immediate fall of Minsk and early capitulation of Bobruisk after driving into the Germans' "Fatherland Line."

Red army units pursuing remnants of the German forces driven from Orsha reached points less than 30 miles from Bobruisk, on the rail line between Orsha and Minsk.

Encirclement Threatens

The vast German army immediately to the west faced encirclement in the triangular area formed by Orsha, Bobruisk and Minsk.

At Mogilev the Soviets battled the Germans in the streets, and other Russian troops encircled Bobruisk to the southwest and pressed into the suburbs.

Capture by the Soviets of Mogilev and Bobruisk will virtually shatter the entire German Baltic defense system.

Four Russian armies which have already liquidated some 42,000 Germans, clamped a ring of encirclement around five more Nazi divisions in mighty onslaughts which carried them into the Mogilev fortress. At Bobruisk the Russians encircled an estimated 50,000 to 60,000 Nazis southeast of the city.

The Russian regions in their all-out drive aimed at Minsk and the Polish approaches to Germany, in self, overran nearly 1,500 additional towns.

New Eastern Air Command Staging Smashing Raids

Japanese Strongholds In Carolines Smashed By Devastating Assaults

AMERICAN BOMBS DROP EVERYWHERE

By GEORGE LAIT
U.S. Staff Correspondent

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, June 28.—American long-range bombers of the newly created Far Eastern Air Force, stepping up Gen. Douglas MacArthur's raids against Japanese strongholds in the Carolines, smashed at three enemy bastions in assaults which reciprocated fierce running sky battles, headquarters reported today.

At least nine—and probably 12—enemy planes were destroyed by Lieut. Gen. George C. Kenney's airmen during their latest strike against Yap, among the westernmost of the Carolines. Palau, southwest of Yap, and the Jap stronghold at Woleai also were on the receiving end of the American bombloads.

Air Fields Hit

Gen. MacArthur announced the new raids, in which airfield installations were the principal targets. Some 35 tons of high explosives cascaded down upon the airfield and runway pavements at Yap. Eight of the nine Jap planes destroyed.

Fordham Records Two Severe Quakes

NEW YORK, June 28.—(INS)—Fordham university officials reported today that the university seismograph recorded two "very severe" earthquakes this morning, the first occurring at 4:05 and the second at 4:10 EWT. It was estimated that the earth shocks occurred 2,170 miles from New York, which would place them either in Nicaragua or in Guatemala.

Cherbourg Victory Due To Coordination Of Land, Sea, Air Forces

By MAJOR PAUL C. RABORG
(Written Especially for U.S.S.)

NEW YORK, June 28.—The victory of United States ground troops at Cherbourg—infantry, tanks, and artillery, was probably the best example of the perfectly coordinated combat team—land, sea and air, that has yet occurred in this war. The superbly efficient and effective part played in that battle by Allied warships can not and must not be overlooked.

All Branches Aid

Ever since the successful Allied invasion of northwestern Africa, it has become more and more evident that no one branch—land, sea, or air, can obtain decisive results in any action which requires the participation of all the members of that team.

Each branch has its own designated part to play in this war and nothing to date has happened which has altered that designated part.

Warships are planned and built to meet either of two fighting requirements. First is for naval combat at sea. Second, is for the assault against land positions. It is possible for warships to bring heavy artillery to the water side of an attack against land fortifications, that is particularly true of battleships. They can with great mobility bring into action guns which are far too large in caliber—16 inch—than can be used in mobile land artillery commands. In other words, no unit of the ground forces of General Montgomery on the Normandy campaign.

ABOARD JOINT EXPEDITIONARY FORCE FLAGSHIP, Saipan, June 28.—(Via Navy radio)—Overcoming natural obstacles almost as formidable as the enemy, American invaders of Saipan crushed down the rocky northern slopes of Mount Tapochau today with their goal in full view after 13 days of battle.

Ahead of them lay Japanese strong points, 27 years in the building and an entrenched enemy garrison still committed to defending an island already abandoned by the Jap fleet and the emperor.

Behind them was more than half of the island, and the invaders held the full initiative of battle. The Japanese, pounded day and night by massed land artillery and naval batteries, had been unable to launch any sizeable counter attack in three days.

Control Of Air

Overhead American planes, now able to use the conquered Asitio air field (re-named Conroy field) on southern Saipan without interference from Japanese stragglers held undisputed control of the air. It was a situation in which the Marines and army troops along the firing line thought they glimpsed the eventual end of the hardest battle in the central Pacific although none doubted that the most difficult fighting still lay ahead.

LONDON, June 28.—(INS)—Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's forces "now have a firm bridgehead across the Odon river and a tank battle is being fought in open rolling country between the Odon and Orne valleys," a Reuters correspondent with the British in Normandy reported today.

The British he said have advanced nearly six miles in the battle which has been under way for three days.

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER BASE IN ENGLAND, June 28.—(INS)—Lieut.-Col. Francis E. Gabreski of Oil City, Pa., pilot of a P-47 Thunderbolt, today was tied with Maj. Robert Johnson of Lawton, Okla., for top-ranking destroyer of enemy planes in aerial combat.

Gabreski shot down a messerschmitt-109 over France Tuesday, officials revealed to boost his total destroyed in the air to 27 craft. Johnson, a groupmate now on leave in the United States, also has shot down 27 Nazi planes.

Gabreski also had credit for two German craft demolished on the ground.

Dewey won the nomination on the first ballot. The convention had to ballot under its rules, although only Dewey's name had been submitted to the convention.

CHICAGO, June 28.—At long last it will be Dewey and Bricker.

The 23rd Republican national convention today will nominate Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York for the presidency and Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio for the vice presidency, with the New Yorker flying to Chicago from Albany to accept the nomination. Only a Bricker refusal will keep him off the ticket.

DeWitt will win the top post on the first ballot, having a minimum of 857 votes in the International News Service poll of delegations. The name of Governor Bricker, however, will be entered against him along with that of Harold L. Stassen, the former governor of Minnesota. Bricker has a maximum of 112 votes.

Bond Campaign Gathers Speed

Record Of Ellwood City Sets Pace For Drive Toward Goal In County

Gathering speed by the hour the Fifth War Loan campaign topped the five million mark today when the county overall total was shown to be $5,097,241.

And up at the top of the bond ladder was Ellwood City with the proud record of having met its quota both in "E" bonds and in the overall quota. Ellwood City's overall quota now stands at $2,221,111.50, its corporation total at $1,667,740.50, its "E" bond quota at $427,013 and its total sales to individuals $538,377.

New Castle's overall total is $2,772,754.75, its corporation total $1,944,366.50, its sales to individuals total $828,388.25 and "E" bonds $311,135.75.

With the shining example of Ellwood City passing its quota ten days before the bond campaign is over, it is expected other communities will catch the spark and do some last minute hustling. The sale of "E" bonds is lagging in New Castle.

Ellwood City First In State To Pass Quota

PITTSBURGH, June 28.—(INS)—Ellwood City today became the first city in Pennsylvania, as in previous bond campaigns, to go over the top in its Fifth War Loan campaign.

War finance committee officials announced the city not only passed its "E" bond quota of $400,000 by $24,013 by selling 10,241 individual bonds, but also has passed its overall quota for sales of all types of bonds. The total quota for Ellwood City was $1,400,000 and yesterday's reports showed $2,221,111.50.

C. H. Blank, war finance committee chairman for the community, predicted the overall total will be doubled within two weeks and that "E" bond sales will reach $700,000 before the campaign closes.

German Soldiers Dominate Finland

Finland Cannot Hope To Take Independent Action On Finnish-German Agreement

By STEEN HEDMAN
U. S. Staff Correspondent

STOCKHOLM, June 28.—Finland, having to German demands to remain in the war against Russia, found herself virtually dominated by military forces of the Nazi Reich today.

The dispatch of additional German forces to aid the Finns was seen in Stockholm as a warning to the Finnish government that it was taking independent action regarding the Finnish-German agreement.

Forecasts Action

The arrival of the troops, some quarters observed, also serves to prevent the Finnish government from taking independent action regarding the Finnish-German agreement.

The agreement, announced both in Helsinki and Berlin, includes not only a promise of military help to Finland, but also a pledge of loyalty. The document signed by President Risto Ryti declares the Finns shall continue the war and not conclude any separate peace without German permission.

The Finnish parliament was faced with a fait accompli by the cabinet action. Theoretically, interpellation is possible and the cabinet would have to answer it. In parliamentary procedure, however, such action was not expected as the German reinforcements effectively place Finland in German hands.

Quick Actions

Informed Finns arriving in Stockholm declared that Ryti and Finnish Foreign Minister Henrik Ramsay misled parliament. Hitler's promise to send military help was carried out with great speed that the German transports began arriving while Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop still remained in Finland.

Typical reaction in Sweden to the move is that expressed by an editorial appearing in the Stockholm Dagbladet, which first announced the Nazi troops were arriving in Helsinki.

"Finland now has given up the right to conclude a separate peace and has promised to carry on the war," the paper said.

"Information as to conduct of the Finnish cabinet calls forth the deepest pessimism."

State Buys More War Bonds Today

HARRISBURG, June 28.—(INS)—State Treasurer G. Harold Wagner announced today the purchase of an additional $1,500,000 worth of war bonds boosting the bond holdings to $85,897,000.

Wagner said that the bonds were purchased with money from the school employees' retirement fund. Earlier this week he announced the state had invested $84,397,000 in bonds.

HALF OF SAIPAN ALREADY TAKEN BY AMERICANS

Americans could see long wooded ridges ahead between which thousands of Japs were dug in, as well as Garapan—largest city in the Marianas—and its important harbor at Tanapaga to the northward.

Garapan, bombarded constantly and largely burned out, looked from the heights to be as abandoned as one of the ghost mining towns of California's Mother Lode country but Marine patrols penetrating toward the center of the city, found plenty of Japanese ambuscades.

Strong Defenses

Today's advance was made along the heights above Garapan where troops pushed along a one mile front to bisect the island with a straight line extending to the eastern shore where the large land area of Kagman Peninsula north of Magicienne Bay was captured yesterday.

The Jap defenders had strong positions in rocks and caves around Tapochau.

The last organized resistance on the southern tip of the island at Naituan Point collapsed when between three and five hundred Japs abandoned positions in rugged cliffs and tried to fight their way through American lines northward to the Japanese half of the island. Two hundred of the Japs were killed in one spot and scores of others died in small groups.

Gain Air Field

Destruction of this enemy pocket enabled Americans for the first time to obtain full use of Conroy Field, the most important living strip in the Marianas.

On the Japanese-held northern end are military installations which the Japanese began building when they took Saipan during the World War.

American officers surveyed enormous quantities of captured war material and other booty and found everything from trains to baby buggies. There were Jap guns and plenty of ammunition to go with them, considerable Jap food and clothing—and good roads.

None of these things, however, counted for much when compared to the real prize of battle—the island of Saipan itself, key to the Marianas.

CHERBOURG VICTORY DUE TO COORDINATION LAND, SEA, AIR FORCES

beachhead could have been equipped with or used 16-inch heavy artillery against the fortifications of Cherbourg. But the battleships of our Navy could and did.

Warship Functions

When the warships goes to sea on any general mission she must carry shells of two types. One to destroy warships, and the other for the destruction of land fortifications. Normally the warship must never be caught without sufficient ammunition on hand to give battle to another warship. Therefore, under ordinary circumstances she is limited in the amount of ammunition that can be carried for use against land fortifications. That, however, was not the case at Cherbourg.

Since the Allied Navy controlled it, seas about that French seaport and their approaches, our three great battleships which have been mentioned as taking part in that engagement—the Texas, the Nevada and the Arkansas, were able to carry a full load of fortification destruction projectiles into the attack against Cherbourg. That gave them a much greater than normal fire power.

That heavy artillery assistance probably shortened by days, weeks and even possibly months the time it took to defeat the Nazi defenders of Cherbourg.

towns and villages in the fifth day of their great "win the war offensive".

Towns Are Liberated

Most important of these communities liberated from the Nazi yoke was Orsha, six-way railroad junction, south of Vitebsk.

Later the official Soviet communiqué described the complete elimination of five Nazi divisions which had been encircled southwest of captured Vitebsk. "Repeated" enemy attempts to break out of the iron ring were smashed time and again, by powerful artillery and mortar fire of the Russians.

More than 20,000 German corpses littered the battlefield when upwards of 10,000 Nazi officers and men finally accepted the Soviet ultimatum and surrendered.

The encircled grouping had consisted of four German infantry divisions and one air force division.

The new Red army division was clamped on five more Nazi divisions when Soviet columns advancing into the sector north of Bobruisk and "by an impetuous thrust" linked up with units "carrying out an enveloping thrust from the east."

Before breaking into Mogilev, central pivot of the Eastern Front, the Russians fought their way across the upper Dnepr north and south of the city in advance that engulfed more than 300 towns and villages.

Soviet tanks and infantry, developing their success, engaged the enemy garrison in bitter street fighting.

On the Finnish front, meanwhile, Red Army troops fought their way forward to capture 31 additional places in Karelia beyond the over-run Svir river between Lakes Onega and Ladoga.

The Soviet army newspaper Red Star reported that Russian troops were clinging close to the heels of the demoralized German troops fleeing from the Orsha area.

"The enemy first attempted to cover his flank with artillery batteries, but he was out-gunned by the Soviet forces," the Red Star report said.

"The Germans broke and fled in disorder when the Russians entered Orsha."

The British radio quoted the newspaper Izvestia, organ of the Kremlin, as declaring that "the straight road to Minsk lies open."

MORE TOWNS IN ITALY SEIZED BY AMERICANS

Dorcia, after repulsing German attempts to eliminate their bridgehead across the Orcia river below Siena.

Heavy fighting was in progress five miles north of Perugia where the British now hold two dominant heights. Heavy battling also occurred near Colonnella, east of the Tiber river.

On the Adriatic sector of the line, much artillery and patrol activity was reported.

Naval Action

Headquarters also revealed that on the night of June 16-17 French naval units in the Adriatic made a "spurred attack" on an escorted enemy convoy blowing up at least one Axis vessel.

The Mediterranean Air Force, which with 1,500 sorties yesterday supported the Italian ground offensive and struck military objectives in the Budapest and Brod (Yugoslavia) areas, reported increasing aerial opposition to the Balkan raids.

Approximately 100 German interceptors challenged the Budapest raiders, but 31 of the Nazis were destroyed.

All told, the Allied fliers destroyed 38 enemy planes in their wide-flung assaults. We lost six of our planes.

ALLIED FORCES SMASH AHEAD IN NORMANDY

forces gave them control, in addition to Tonnville, of St. Maurice, Cheux, Colleville and Grainville.

The Britons and Canadians advanced about a half mile east of St. Maurice, and La Gaille and also cut the railway between Colleville and Grainville.

The 45th communiqué on the action in Normandy issued by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said that Gen. Montgomery's armored forces had succeeded in widening the breach between Tilly and Caen to advance on the main Villers-Bocage-Caen road across a four-mile wide front.

The rail line between Villers-Bocage and Caen previously had been cut by the Allied forces moving to outflank Caen.

The advance which severed the highway was made after the Germans were beaten back in particularly heavy fighting in the area of Tonnville.

Steadfast Resistance

"The enemy is resisting stubbornly but the advance continues to make progress," the communiqué said.

A headquarters spokesman said that the Germans were resisting every inch of the advance but the campaign southeast of Tilly was proceeding satisfactorily.

Every time forward by the Allies bring an immediate fierce reaction from the Nazis who obviously need to hold to the Caen hinge.

Latest reports from the front indicated that the British-Canadian offensive forces were across the River Odon, to the south-southwest of Tonnville and in possession of high ground before the river, about 8 miles southwest of Caen.

The forces of Gen. Montgomery were finally in control of Tonnville. The Odon river is about 20 feet wide and has a depth of four to six feet.

Tonnville, on high ground, gives the Allies an excellent forward observation post from which to press the campaign officially described as an all-out effort by the Allies to get more elbow room in which to maneuver and to seize Caen.

The headquarters spokesman said that the Allied line to the west of the major action being fought beyond Tilly has been slightly advanced probably a half a mile to guard the Allied right flank.

The railway southeast of Tilly was cut at several points.

The spokesman said that headquarters could not place any credence in reports of the past few days indicating that the Germans, with four armored divisions on the Tilly-Caen front, is superior in armor to the Allies. He pointed out that Gen. Montgomery did not launch his major attack unless he felt his forces had overall superiority.

In the vicinity of fallen Cherbourg American forces made progress in cleaning out the German remnants hemmed in within the horseshoe of Cherbourg peninsula.

The Germans still were holding out at the Maupertuis airfield, east of Cherbourg and still resisting in the northwest corner of the peninsula, in the area of Cap De La Hague, but the Americans are rapidly cleaning them out.

With the exception of sporadic sniping, there is very little resistance left in Cherbourg itself.

In short the American people want a leadership which can meet their difficulties and revive their hope. The Republican party can furnish that leadership and I know whereof I speak."

Tells of Dewey's Rise

Griswold then began his outline of the abilities and achievements of Governor Dewey, emphasizing that he "came up the hard way."

"I like the kind of father he is and the kind of family he has," Griswold said. "I like the fact that he says grace at meals. I like him because he has a good mind. I like the fact that to him government is serious business."

"I like him because of the kind of people who are afraid of him. He believes in putting crooks in jail—whether they are Democratic crooks or Republican crooks."

"People said you could not smash the racket in New York. He smashed them. They said you could not break the alliance between corrupt politics and crime. He broke it."

What a house cleaning this nation needs and what a man to do the job."

The Nebraska then told of Dewey's accomplishments as governor of New York which he said was "loaded down with bureaucratic growth of 20 years."

"The man I wish because he is faced in the direction the American people want to go. Most of the next administration will be a peacetime administration. The direction of the war is already set, and it will not be changed by the coming election. But the coming election will change our direction here at home."

dromes at Courville, Athies and Jubincourt and the other targets in Germany and France by medium-sized forces of Lightnings, Thunderbolts and Mustangs.

Much Air Activity

Considerable activity continued throughout the day across the channel, with Allied planes continually heading into the direction of flying bomb lairs in France.

British heavy Halifax bombers, flying with lighter escort, went out early today to attack military installations in northern France, presumably rocket launching sites.

The British air ministry said the weight of the night assaults was carried by big Lancasters and Halifaxes which operated in "great strength" along the speedy, knock-buster laden Mosquitoes.

The RAF craft attacked German flying bomb sites and other constructional works. Other bomber command craft mined enemy waters.

At least six German fighters were shot down. Only four British bombers were lost.

Hit East Of Paris

Supreme headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Force said that heavyweight bombers also had smashed at the German command centers of Virey-Le-Francois and Vaires, east of Paris.

Several towns on the southeast coast of England were shaken heavily during the morning a number of times. The shocks were believed to result from either destruction caused by German flying bombs or Allied bombings of the French coast.

Observers at Folkestone said there was nothing visible and most of the explosions appeared to come from the Cap Gris-Nez area of France.

Daylight bombers went out from England soon after daybreak. Some formations were seen striking a short time later from the direction of Boulogne.

In all, British night bombers carried out nine separate attacks, the air ministry said.

Discovery near Ypsilanti, Mich., of a 100-foot gravel vein containing water, probably the thickest water-bearing vein ever found in Michigan, has been announced by the geological survey division of the conservation department.

W.L.B. Arbitrator Is Still Awaited

Representative Of Die Sinks Says Men Want Own Craft At Local Plant

Still awaiting the arrival of an arbitrator of the War Labor Board, the strike of 150 employees of the tool and die remains the same today as it was on Monday when the men walked off the job. The arbitrator was expected early Tuesday but for some reason has not shown up. The men struck when two of their number was discharged for failure to pay union dues.

Lester M. Shearer, of Canton, O., a die sinker, came to New Castle, Tuesday, to act as counsel for the employers in their dispute. Mr. Shearer explained that he was merely acting as counsel for the men and for the present was not the official representative of the International Die Sinks Conference.

Want Own Representation
"The reason back of the strike are three," said Mr. Shearer. "The die sinkers are a craft of their own and in most plants have their own bargaining rights. In New Castle they have not had that right and last week a demand was made that bargaining rights be given them. A meeting was held with a federal mediator and it was agreed that the matter would be adjudicated and that pending the adjudication no action would be taken in the matter of dismissals."

"We do not want to be represented by the UAW-CIO in other plants where other unions have bargaining rights," the die sinkers said. "We want the right for our craft. This is what we demand here."

Music was provided by pianist Miss Ethel Manley, who accompanied as soloist, Miss Betty Knuppelburg. She chose "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

Hull Assures Small Nations

Secretary Hull Assures Little Nations No Crowding Out By Big Four At Conference

By LEON PEARSON (International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 28.—Secretary of State Hull was engaged in confidential talks Tuesday to give assurances to small nations that they will not be crowded into a corner by the "Big Four" in the new international peace organization.

In an unusual series of diplomatic calls, Hull has received a baker's dozen of Latin American ambassadors in the last few days. He summoned no less than seven yesterday afternoon. Six of these—the ambassadors of the five central American republics and Panama—conferred with Hull at the same time.

Meet In Few Weeks
Though the official explanation was a discussion of "economic relations," it was learned from diplomatic sources that the actual subject was the postwar international organization.

The meeting of the "Big Four"—the United States, Great Britain, Russia, and China—has been called for in Washington, presumably in the next few weeks. Hull gave assurances to these smaller countries that their interest would be protected at all times, in the course of this conference.

It was reported that Hull, in his current diplomatic talks, has emphasized what he calls "The all-inclusive nature of the world situation and our disposition and purpose to see that all nations, especially the small nations, are kept on a position of equality with all others."

Military Ballot Canvass Deadline Moved To July 6

HARRISBURG, June 28.—(INS)—Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison, director of the state defense council, said the deadline of the military ballot information canvass has been extended from today until July 6.

He explained that county chairmen requested the extension in order to complete their absentee voter survey because in "numerous instances homes had to be visited several times to obtain data."

He reminded canvass officials that cards must be turned over to the election boards before 8 a. m. July 7, proclaimed by Gov. Edward Martin as military ballot day.

More than 251,118 cards have been compiled by all counties since the opening of the drive on Flag Day, June 14, he announced.

The state elections bureau was expected to mail 500,000 secret ballots to Pennsylvanians eligible to vote in the general election November 7.

Latest county figures reported by the state council of defense included: Allegheny, 37,352; Blair, 3,300; Butler, 3,207; Clinton, 592; Cambria, 4,414; Crawford, 1,542; Clearfield, 2,247; Center, 2,800; Dauphin, 5,700; Erie, 6,590; Elk, 1,389; Forest, 109; Fayette, 6,236; Greene, 509; Huntingdon, 1,293; Lawrence, 4,100; Mifflin, 1,780; Mercer, 949; Snyder, 618; Somerset, 1,152; Warren, 1,076; and Washington, 13,255.

McKeesport Area Acclaims Paige

McKEESPORT, Pa., June 28.—(INS)—Approximately 35,000 residents of the tornado-stricken McKeesport area—who momentarily forgot their own troubles to acclaim a returning hero—today could not forget the sight of Marine Lt. Mitchell Paige blushing under his deep tropical tan.

Allegheny county's first winner of the congressional medal of honor in World War II grinned bashfully as he waved at the surging throngs that lined the streets as he rode through the city in an hour-long parade.

Beside the hero sat Mrs. Paige, the dark-haired, vivacious wife to whom he returned Friday after not seeing her for more than two years.

STATE NURSERIES SOLD 3,606,000 TREES IN SPRING

HARRISBURG, June 28.—Nursery stock shipments by the Department of Forests and Waters during the spring of 1944, reported by Secretary James A. Keil, were 1,125 orders of 10,000 trees, 80 per cent of them to farmers or a total of 3,606,000 seedlings and transplants and 3,260 ornamentals.

The trees shipped by the department seedlings and transplants were used to reforest upwards of 2,500 acres of land. They will eventually take the place of timber which is now being cut for use in the war effort from farm woodlots and state forest land. Species planted include: (conifers) red pine, white pine, Norway spruce, white spruce, pitch pine, banks pine, hemlock, Japanese larch, (hardwoods) black locust, black walnut, red oak, white oak.

Trees are furnished by the Department of Forests and Waters to private land owners for planting in the state for reforestation and watershed protection at approximately the cost of production. This is $2 a thousand for seedlings and $5 a thousand for transplants. Ornamental trees are distributed only for growing on state lands, federal lands and public school grounds.

It is thought that with a normal growing summer the following species of red pine, white pine, white spruce, hemlock, Japanese larch, banks pine, black locust, black walnut.

Requests for nursery stock should be sent to the Division of Forest Management at Harrisburg.

Landlord To Register First Rental Of Home

Violation Of Rule Subjects Landlord To Prosecution, Area Rent Director Warns

As a result of a current survey on rents in the Pittsburgh Defense Rental Area, it has been found that many landlords renting dwelling units for the first time have failed to register with the Rent Division of the Office of Price Administration, according to Rev. Charles O. Rice, Area Rent Director. Failure to register with the OPA within thirty days of first rental is a violation of the Rent Regulation and may subject the violator to Federal prosecution," Father Rice added. A certain amount of laxity also exists among landlords in showing new tenants the registration statement and reporting each new tenant to the Rent Office.

In cases where landlords have raised the ceiling rent without authority, tenants are being notified of their right to sue the landlord for three times the amount of the overcharge or $50,000 and that separate action may be brought for each such overcharge.

"Such violation may also result in Federal prosecution unless the overcharge is refunded and agreement to abide by the Regulation is had," Rev. Rice concluded.

For further information as to the Maximum Rent, application should be made to the Rent Clerk at Aiken Avenue School, New Castle, or at the Area Rent Office, 401 Fulton Building, Pittsburgh.

Denies Rumors About Wounded

New Castle isn't any different than any other city in the United States insofar as rumors go. A rumor starts on the Pacific coast and eventually works its way east with way stops along the line.

Recently the Federal government exploded a rumor that there were many "basket" cases of wounds in the present war, a basket case being one in which both arms and legs are amputated. It was pointed out that in this war there have been no basket cases to date.

Stopping in New Castle enroute east, the rumor is that a certain New Castle soldier (and the name changes with the person mentioning the story) is in the Deshon General hospital with both arms and legs amputated.

Commenting on the rumor Tuesday Col. C. J. Gentzkow, commandant of the hospital, said "It is so utterly ridiculous that it seems useless to even deny it. Deshon is primarily a hard-of-hearing center but there are other types of disabled soldiers in the hospital. As to our basket cases, that is only the same rumor that is going the rounds. Sensitive people will pay no attention to wild stories on the type of injuries our men are receiving."

America — this is it!

He's doing his part : : : We must do our part!

For him the terrifying grand climax of the war is at hand.

The supreme military risk—bound to be bloody, costly, in American lives.

Our boys know this. They don't have to read the heart-rending headlines or casualty lists to know what is expected of them.

They are in it.

But they are not flinching... not holding back.

They will see the grim venture through to the bitter, victorious end.

And if, for your boy, or some boy you know, the price of Victory is death, you can be absolutely certain that he made the supreme sacrifice courageously... for the cause of Freedom.

For us, too, the terrifying grand climax of the war is at hand.

This supreme, desperate call for American dollars—16 billions of them—is to enable our fighting men to carry through the grim, bloody assault to a successful conclusion and Victory.

Not just American dollars—but the dollars in your pocket—in your savings account.

You must buy War Bonds—now! At least twice as much as you bought last time. If you are already buying Bonds on a payroll savings plan, buy EXTRA Bonds during this Drive.

Your Government is counting on you. Your boy, and your neighbor's boy, are counting on you... just as you are counting on them in this fateful hour.

► Don't let them down! Do your part—as they are doing theirs. Dig down, America—dig down deep! While there is still time. This is America's Zero Hour—Civilization's Zero Hour!

And here are 5 MORE reasons for buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Stalin Knows And Appreciates War Production In U. S.

MOSCOW, June 28.—(INS)—Eric Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, after a two and one-half hour conversation with Premier Marshal Joseph Stalin, admitted Tuesday being greatly impressed by the Soviet leader's knowledge of American production.

"I don't know one man in 10,000 United States businessmen who knows as much," Johnston told the entire American and British press following the interview.

Stalin told Johnston that "American business and labor have done a remarkable job of production for war, and American agriculture also has performed unusually well."

"American machines of war and American food have contributed to the successes of the red army," he added.

Dr. Bennett Talks On Bond Campaign

Local Pastor Addresses Service Club On Importance Of Getting Job Finished

Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, a member of the speakers committee for the Fifth War Loan addressed members of the New Castle Lions Club at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Tuesday.

Dr. Bennett stressed the importance of getting the campaign over stating that the bulk of extra bonds purchased during the special campaign are purchased by business and professional men, such as compose the club.

He stated that 50 per cent of the bonds purchased in the prior campaigns were bought on solicitation and urged the members who are assisting in the campaign to get out and see their prospects and urge them to buy at this time. Four new members who have recently affiliated with the club were initiated. They were County Commissioner Earl Rohrer, Joe D. Wells, Ed L. Stitzinger, and James E. Homan.

Committee reports occupied the balance of the meeting.

Lowlands Invasion Strongly Hinted

WASHINGTON, June 28.—(INS)—Hints of a possible Allied invasion thrust into the lowlands were found Tuesday in a Treasury department disclosure that United States mints are furnishing "large" numbers of coins for the Dutch government in exile.

It was considered probable that the coins are being provided for distribution to American and British troops stationed in England. It is recalled that Allied soldiers carried French currency when they invaded German-occupied France early this month.

DO CROPS NEED BORON IS TIMELY QUESTION

If boron is to be of any value to legumes, it should be applied immediately after the hay has been harvested. Alfalfa is the farm crop which most often seems to need extra boron.

Because of varying factors of the soil, crop and seasonal conditions care must be exercised in applying boron, since careless applications or an excess of boron may actually reduce yields. There is much to be learned about boron, but observations and trials over a number of years indicate that it's use is sometimes profitable.

Excess calcium in heavily-limed soils depresses the natural availability of boron by preventing the plants from absorbing it. However, a deficiency in boron interferes with the blooming and seed setting of alfalfa and the other clovers.

Twenty to thirty pounds of borax per acre is usually applied, and it may be applied either with a wheelbarrow, cyclone seeder, or mixed with other fertilizers for top dressing. Several farms have prepared fertilizers for alfalfa top-dressing with boron added, so that an extra applications need not be made. Amounts of boron in such mixtures are adjusted so that even at high rates of fertilization, the amount of boron will not be toxic. Where boron has been added to the fertilizer, this fact is stated on the tag. Such fertilizers should never be used in the drill or corn planters as very small amounts of boron in contact with seed will kill the seedlings.

Electric motors, when treated well lubricated properly and kept clean will last indefinitely. They should be cleaned and inspected regularly.

Motor bearings should be lubricated, but not too often. Over-lubrication of electrical equipment is one of the chief sources of trouble.

Oil that gets into windings of a motor or generator has caused many failures. Motors should be lubricated every six months, or once a year, depending on the amount of operation. Light oil should be used on those requiring oil, while those with ball-bearing equipment need a light grease.

Vacuum cleaners do extra work during housecleaning days and should have extra care. Parts of a vacuum that need most attention are the bag, the belt, and the brush.

Light objects, such as calendars, may be held securely on the kitchen wall by a small piece of adhesive tape, and walls won't be marred by nail holes.

FARM MOTORS NEED PERIODIC ATTENTION

Increased use of power equipment as the result of labor shortages places electric motors in a new and most necessary role, and makes it imperative that all electric motors on farms receive the attention needed to keep them in proper condition.

Former Resident Gets German Helmet

Mother To Use Helmet To Spur Fifth War Bond Drive In This City

First Lieut. I. M. Randolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Randolph, of Summer avenue, secured a German helmet taken from one of the German prisoners, while in an infantry combat battle, and sent it home to his parents.

Mrs. Randolph, who is in home-service and staff assistant of the local chapter of Red Cross, hopes to use the helmet to spur the bond drive.

In a recent letter back home Lieut. Randolph writes of the nerve-racking conditions experienced while crossing 400 or 500 yards of battle front to enemy territory.

The letter tells of how he and his buddies crawled for miles over damp grass, becoming soaked in the cold and damp of night. Suddenly machinegun fire breaks loose ricocheting all around, and a one-inch of depression in the earth looks like a ditch of heaven as they try to bury their faces in the earth. The trip back is more nerve-racking. You crawl through more sprays of bullets and pray. At dawn the report to the command post is "mission accomplished," and the number of men mentioned, who were able to come back.

Lieut. Randolph is now assigned to press censor with the Allied forces. He is 27 years of age and enlisted in 1942. His wife is the former Shirley Bass of Cleveland, Ohio.

HARRISBURG, June 28.—Machinery for State certification of hybrid seed corn in Pennsylvania was set up today by Miles Horst, Secretary of Agriculture, when he signed rules and regulations placing responsibility for inspections and final certification under the Bureau of Plant Industry, effective June 15.

Suddenly machinegun fire breaks loose ricocheting all around, and a one-inch of depression in the earth looks like a ditch of heaven as they try to bury their faces in the earth. The trip back is more nerve-racking. You crawl through more sprays of bullets and pray. At dawn the report to the command post is "mission accomplished," and the number of men mentioned, who were able to come back.

Swim, Or Sun Tan? Get Both At Pool

Old Folks Wade And Young
Ones Dive. But All Turn
Out For Afternoons
At Park Pool

Some go to swim and some go to tan so that they will look as if they had been swimming, but cool on hot weather, they go, according to Miss Ellen Wadlinger, one of the two girl life guards at the Cascade park pool.

It's not just the kids, either. Workers have discovered that going to the pool after work is a good way to cool off and have fun both. Soldiers, especially those from the Deshon annex just over the hill, make up a part of the crowd splashing around in the water, and some of the swimmers are mamas and papas who have come to supervise a car load of children.

Girls Are Good
Although many of the children and a lot of adults stick to the shallower pools more than a few youngsters head for the ten foot pool and the twelve foot diving board. And when they get there, they're much better divers and swimmers than their parents, Miss Wadlinger finds. Girls, whether you want to believe it or not, can manage high dives, and good swimming strokes better than the boys, some of whom hold their noses and jump off the board.

Of course, there are the girls who don't bother to swim very much. They come with their towels and suntan lotion, and spend the afternoon sitting along the side, or lying in the cement part of the pool that isn't flooded this year. Some, though, especially men, sit with towels around them to protect them from the sun. Blond Miss Wadlinger has a tan that proves what can be done.

Steady Customers
Cool weather does diminish the crowd somewhat, but it doesn't discourage the regulars. Some turn out every day, enjoying the exercise if nothing else. Elderly people go out too, to wade in the shallow pool, or to sit on the edge and cool off.

Tuesdays and Wednesdays aren't such terribly crowded days, according to the life guards, but Sundays and Mondays the latter kiddie's day, are. Not counting service men, there were 1600 in the pool last Sunday.

Rest Of Park Quiet
The rest of the park is quiet during the early afternoon, while kids are crawling over the rocks outside the pool, waiting for it to open, but when they have finished their swims, then the Dodger and Mercury-go-round, and the hot dog stand are called into action. Some boys shut the pool altogether, though, preferring to lie on their stomachs fishing along the creek or down at the lake.

Accidents are few, and there's seldom any trouble, the life guards find, although the job keeps both Miss Wadlinger and her co-worker Miss Betty Stitzinger on the alert. This is Miss Stitzinger's second year as life guard, and Miss Wadlinger's third.

STATE CHECKS ON JAP BEETLE AREA

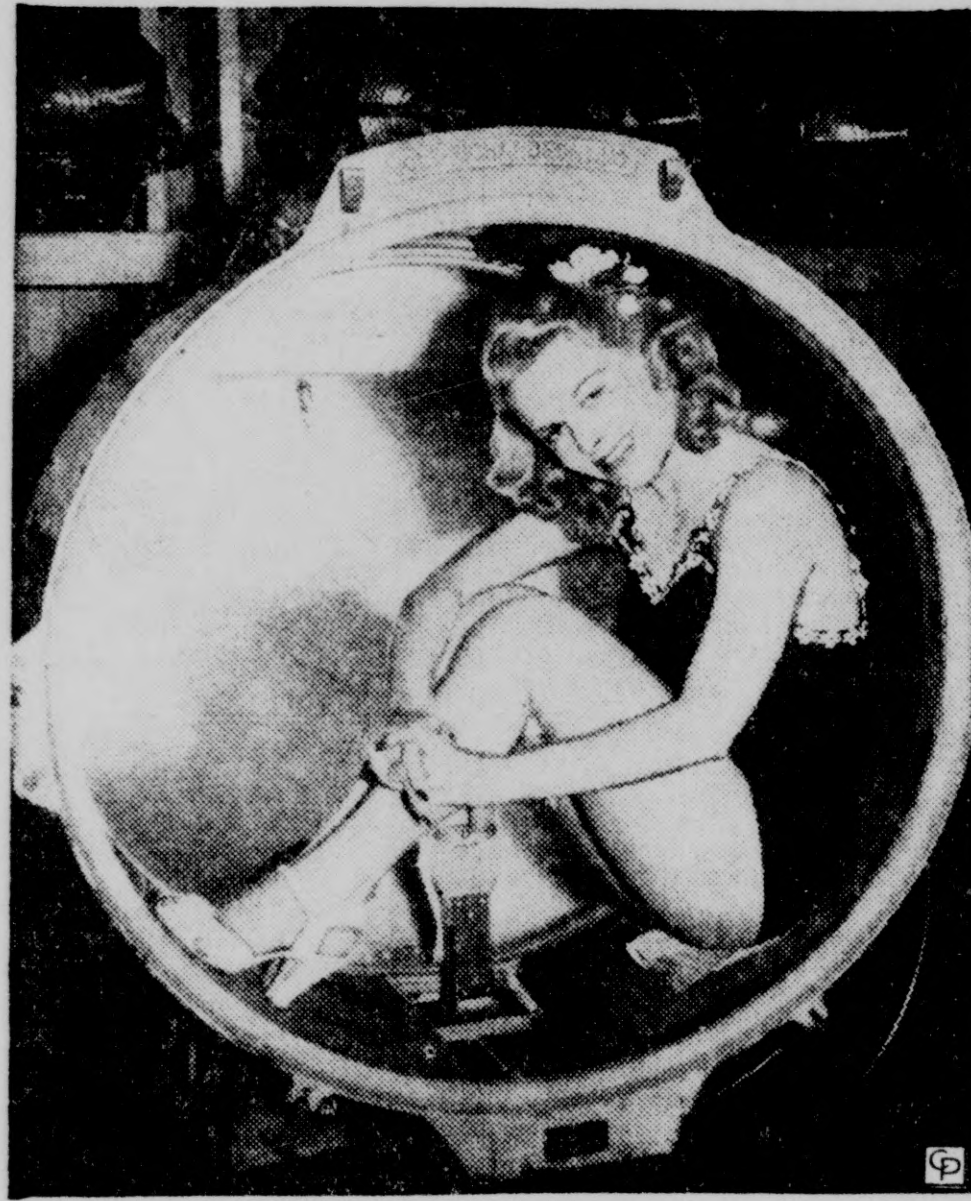

HARRISBURG, June 28—Three hundred metal traps to snare Japanese beetles on the other edge of the quarantine area in Pennsylvania will be placed by mid-July in Crawford and Erie counties by the Bureau of Plant Industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Previous trapping in the same area has failed to disclose the presence of the beetles, and the purpose of this year's test is to see if the insects invade the only section of the state that is still free of the pests. Information on the occurrence and status of the beetle will aid in determining what control measures might be advisable, according to Dr. Thomas L. Guyton, director of the Pennsylvania bureau.

The traps are baited with an aromatic oil which attracts but does not kill the beetles. Most of the traps will be placed in yards and gardens of private residences with the permission of the owners and co-operation of the local police. One hundred traps are to be placed in each of the following places: Cambridge Springs, Crawford county; Union City and Girard, Erie county.

The only quarantine-free areas in Pennsylvania are parts of Erie, Crawford and Mercer counties. The heavily infested area is south and east of Harrisburg. All other sections make up the regulated area where certain quarantine regulations are in effect.

Amazing results in building STURDY BODIES!

1—Promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach

2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

YOUNG people, especially those of grammar and high school age, are prone to be deficient in stomach digestive juices and red blood.

A growing person who is operating on a 65 to 70% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped. In such cases Nature needs extra help. Organic troubles or focal infection, if they exist must be corrected. Tissue foods must be digested and rich, red-blood must be present to build sturdy bodies.

S.S.S. Tonic is especially designed (1) to promote the flow of VITAL DIGESTIVE JUICES in the stomach which digest the food so the body can make proper use of it in tissue building and repair and (2) to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient.

These two important results enable the body to make use of the food as Nature intended. Thus you may gain a keen appetite, firm flesh, a body energy, mental alertness.

Dewey Prepares To Go To Chicago

Prepares For Plane Trip To Convention To Accept G. O. P. Nomination

By GORDON SCHENDEL
U. S. Staff Correspondent
ALBANY, N. Y., June 28—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey stood ready today to board a special plane to Chicago as he awaited word of his nomination as the presidential candidate of the Republican party.

The governor was expected to leave as soon as his nomination, now apparently a certainty, had taken place—in order to deliver his acceptance speech to the convention within a few hours after it has named him the party's standard-bearer.

Accompanying Governor Dewey will be his wife, members of his official family, and representatives of the three major wire news services. The time of his departure hinges on developments at the convention, but it is expected he will leave in mid-afternoon. This would enable him to arrive in Chicago to deliver his acceptance speech in good time this evening.

The governor planned to listen to broadcast proceedings of the convention, with newsmen, in his office this afternoon until the time he leaves for the airport. This is expected to be immediately after the balloting on his name has been completed and his expected nomination has become a fact.

No Comment On Warren
Governor Dewey would make no comment last night on Gov. Earl Warren's announcement that he would refuse the vice presidential nomination, if it were offered to him.

However, Governor Dewey's decision to take a plane to Chicago instead of a train, as earlier contemplated, was believed due in part to Governor Warren's decision. Governor Dewey, it was pointed out, undoubtedly wants to be on hand during selection of the vice presidential candidate.

The governor worked until a late hour last night in the executive mansion, polishing up his acceptance speech. Aiding him in the revisions were the members of his official family who will accompany him to Chicago—Paul E. Lockwood, Dewey's secretary; James C. Haeger, his executive assistant; Elliott V. Bell, state superintendent of banks and Hickman Powell, author and intimate friend of the governor.

Mrs. Dewey returned to Albany from their 300-acre Pawling, N. Y., farm with their sons, Thomas E. Dewey Jr., 11 years old, and John Martin, eight. The governor's mother will join the Deweys in Chicago.

Saipan Capital U. S. Objective

Believe Japanese Infantry Defense Has Formed Before Garapan For Battle

By RICHARD V. HALER
U. S. Staff Correspondent

PEARL HARBOR, June 28—American assault troops on Saipan Island were believed today to be engaged in a pitched battle for Garapan, capital city of the Marianas stronghold after dispatches from the embattled island indicated that the long-awaited massed infantry defense by the Japanese had formed.

The Americans, who have gained the heights of Mount Tapochau, the towering volcanic mass in the center of the island, have pushed their lines into the streets of Garapan on the west shore and have occupied the Kagman peninsula on the eastern side, giving them definite advantages over the hard-pressed Jap defenders who have been falling back slowly but surely since the Americans first stormed the beaches of Saipan June 14.

No Communique
For the first day since June 14 no communique was forthcoming Tuesday from Admiral Chester W. Nimitz' Pacific fleet headquarters on the battle for Saipan.

Lacking official information, observers pointed out that by commencing a 1,554 foot Mount Tapochau, U. S. Marines and Army infantry troops now have vantage points for observation of the Jap-held northern sector of Saipan and it is likely that artillery has been installed on the heights to rake remaining Jap defenses.

Observers who wondered at Jap defense tactics, which consisted mainly of rear guard actions on the southern slopes of Tapochau, are beginning to believe that stronger defenses lie ahead as Jap resistance gives every evidence that the enemy is ready to stop his delaying tactics and set up a massed infantry defense.

No Action Taken On Monday Closing

Following a poll of the retail merchants of the city by the Retail Merchants' division of the Greater New Castle Association, no action will be taken as a unit, in the matter of closing stores on Monday July 3rd. A division of opinion was found and there will be no blanket petition to the National Labor Relations Board for permission to close.

It is now an individual matter for all merchants. Those who can play more than eight employees and want to close must file individual petitions to the NLRB through the Pittsburgh office.

Men Inducted Into Navy Service Are Given Farewell

Men From Three Boards Centered Here Leave For Duty This Morning

Men called up for service in the U. S. Navy by City Boards One and Two, and County Board Two, with headquarters here, departed this morning via the Pennsylvania Railroad for Pittsburgh, where they will be sworn into service.

The number was considerably smaller than has been the case in the past few months.

A few brief words of farewell were given by Charles E. Allen, representing the Lawrence County Service Men's Aid group, of the U. S. O., and the benediction was given by Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church.

The men were given the usual kits by the women of the Service Men's Aid group.

Shenango Presbytery met at the Sharpville Presbyterian church on Tuesday for a morning and afternoon session. Dr. R. M. Patterson, moderator, presided.

In addition to the regular membership, corresponding members Rev. John C. Teyssier of the Washington Pa. Presbytery, and the Rev. D. C. Morrison of the Chicago Presbytery, now a captain in the U. S. army and assistant chaplain at Camp Reynolds, were invited to sit in the meeting.

Rev. R. M. Touvel and Rev. C. E. Lamale were absent, attending the School of Religion at Western Seminary, Pittsburgh.

Rev. J. J. McVaine, D. D., gave a report from the general assembly which met in the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago May 26-31. A report was also received from Elder Commissioner Charles L. Reppman of the Wampum church.

Plans for Home

Progress of plans for a home for aged Presbyterians in western Pennsylvania now stands at $120,000 and it is hoped to expand this to a $500,000 capital in the near future. As yet no site has been chosen although several are under consideration.

Nine presbyteries of western Pennsylvania from Erie on the north boundary to Washington on the southwest boundary have voted to enter into cooperation on the project. The cooperating churches have a total membership of 185,000 Presbyterians. Shenango Presbytery voted to become a participant in the project.

Rev. Joseph E. Pringle and Elder Dorris L. Fulkman of Pulaski reported on the synod of Pennsylvania held at Wilson college, Chambersburg, June 5-9. The report of Rev. C. E. Lamale was presented by Rev. S. W. Harro.

Warren K. Martin Licensed

Candidate Warren K. Martin, a member of the Sharpville church, was examined by the presbytery and licensed as a minister.

Rev. Grant E. Fisher, D. D., reported for the committee on church cooperation and union. He told of the work that has been done by this same committee of the synod of Pennsylvania in providing for the needs of communities throughout the state that are over-churching or under-churching.

Rev. Thomas G. Berger reported that the Presbyterian church of the U. S. A. had set a quota of $1,253,000 to be raised for the wartime service commission by May 31 of this year and that this goal was exceeded by more than $50,000. Shenango Presbytery exceeded its quota by several hundred dollars.

Minister Enters Navy

Official notification has been received by Rev. S. W. Harro of the West Middlesex church that he has been accepted as a chaplain in the U. S. naval reserve but has not yet received his commission.

Dr. S. A. Kirkbride was appointed moderator of the session of Unity church to succeed Rev. Harro as soon as he enters the navy. Farrell Magyar church has issued a call for Rev. Stephen Szekacs of the Saskatchewan Presbytery, Canada. He has signified his intention of accepting.

Labor Priority Plan Awaits WMC Action

WMC Control Over Male Workers Through Employment Service To Go Into Effect July 1

Plans for the local priority, referral system have been submitted by the local United States Employment Service to the Philadelphia office for approval of the War Manpower Commission, according to Alfred C. Scott, area director from Greensburg, who was in New Castle today.

A meeting in connection with the new system, which is to go into effect on July 1, is being held in Scranton today. Mr. Scott said. The hearing will likely last all afternoon.

For the past year the bargaining rights have been in the hands of two unions in the plant, the International Association of Machinists and the International Moulder and Foundry Workers Union. Both are affiliates of the American Federation of Labor. The United Steel Workers claim sufficient membership to warrant bargaining rights and instituted the action.

At the hearing are representatives of the various unions, and about thirty men who apparently have been called as witnesses. Out of the hearing will come one of three decisions, first, the situation can remain as it is, second, an order can be drawn for an election for one union as bargaining agent or an order can be made for an election for two bargaining unions.

The issue drawn is solely one between rival unions and has nothing to do with labor relations in the plant.

An overwhelming portion of this represented corporation purchases. On individual purchases, including "E" bonds, only 28 per cent of goal had been reached with $38,797,600 of which $16,405,300 had been sold in the 18 counties outside Allegheny county.

N.L.R.B. Hearing Testimony On Petition of U.S.W. On U. E. & F. Co. Representatives

With Allen Shinschmer sitting as National Labor Relations Board trial examiner in court room number one of the Lawrence County court house the petition of the United Steel Workers for an election to determine bargaining rights in the plant of the United Engineering and Foundry Company opened shortly before noon today.

Shuttle-Bombing Extends To Italy

American Fortresses Fly From Russia To Italy And Bomb Targets Enroute

MADE FLIGHT TO SOVIET FIELDS

By LARRY NEWMAN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

ROME, June 28—(INS)—American B-17 fortresses of the British-based Eighth air force which recently made a shuttle-bombing assault upon the Reich and landed in the Soviet Union were safe in Italy today after making the first three-theater flight in history.

The big bombers, which flew to Russia from Britain June 21, attacking Berlin and an oil refinery at Dronobica 45 miles southwest of Lwow en route, left Soviet soil and landed in Italy Monday, official spokesmen announced today. They thus became the first planes ever to carry out successive missions from bases in Britain, Russia and Italy.

Hit Oil Refineries

On their journey from newly-constructed bases in Russia to the Italian theater, the fortresses attacked oil refineries in the Galicia region of Poland. Speedy Mustang fighters of the 15th air force escorted the raiders from the refinery area to their fields in Italy.

Headquarters spokesmen meanwhile labeled as inexperienced and wary of combat of the Luftwaffe pilots who yesterday attempted to check the bombing raids against Budapest and Brod, Yugoslavia, on the main line from Belgrade to Zagreb.

Discussing the conduct of the enemy fliers, who lost 31 out of some 100 planes, a spokesman said "some of them were apparently inexperienced and few of them were aggressive."

Weather Good For Dewey's Air Hop

ALBANY, N. Y., June 28—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey got perfect Republican weather—clear, bright sunshine—for his expected plane trip to Chicago today to accept the Republican presidential nomination.

Long-range weather forecasters at the Albany airport, from which the Dewey party is expected to take off sometime this afternoon, reported perfect flying weather all the way to Chicago.

There may be some light thunder showers over Michigan," they added, "but the plane will have little difficulty in flying around them."

AUTO FIRE

City firemen were called to East and Falls street, at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, when the motor of an auto owned by George Lyons, of 307 Euclid avenue, became overheated. No action was required of firemen. Fire Chief James E. Thomas stated.

Demonstration Greets Dewey's Name By G.O.P.

By J. WILLIAM THEIS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

CONVENTION STADIUM, CHICAGO, June 28—A wild demonstration—the first of this "harmony" Republican national convention—today greeted the formal nomination of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for president on the G.O.P. ticket.

The moment Gov. Dwight Griswold mentioned the name of Thomas E. Dewey a tremendous demonstration started.

An Indiana delegate started it. State after state delegation went into the parade, with New York finally joining.

It began at 11:39 a. m. and it gave the weary, speech-happy delegates a chance to do something themselves. The stadium organ played "God Bless America." A band in the gallery played some other tune but was drowned out by the organ and the cheering delegates.

And as the Dewey demonstration continued, it was announced that Ohio's Gov. John W. Bricker, who will accept the vice presidential nomination, had arrived at the stadium.

Governor Bricker May Accept Post

CHICAGO, June 28—(INS)—Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio is "seriously considering" acceptance of offers of the Republican vice presidential nomination. Don Ebbright, Ohio state treasurer, said today.

Ebbright said that Bricker had received telephone calls and messages from all parts of the nation urging him to be the running-mate of Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

A number of the Ohioan's lieutenants expressed the opinion that he would consent to run for the second place on the ticket.

Modify G. O. P. Tariff Policy

Republican Party Platform Trend Is Toward Cooperative Effort In World

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

CONVENTION STADIUM, Chicago, June 28—The Republican party through its platform today modified its historic high tariff policy with a warning to the world to "play fair" or face a trade war.

This was the interpretation of the foreign trade plank given by its makers, who said the primary aim was to commit the party not only to political cooperation to prevent war but to economic cooperation to raise the world standard of living.

The platform emphasized that the party favors joining "in every cooperative effort to remove unnecessary and destructive barriers to international trade."

Warning Carried

This, it was explained, carried a warning to great Britain to modify her "empire preference" system of trading together with subsidizing of foreign trade by other nations.

The foreign trade plank, largely the work of former Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas, was regarded as committing the party to a new policy in world affairs.

Adopted by acclamation after widespread circulation of a "phony" rumor of a governor's revolt, the platform was hailed by party leaders as "the best, soundest and most progressive we have had."

Both internationalists and nationalists said they were satisfied by the plank declaring for world collaboration with safeguards for retention of American sovereignty.

"Best Platform"

"I really think it is the best platform we have ever had," said Gov. Landon.

Asked whether so-called internationalists or nationalists won a victory in the platform draft, Gov. Landon replied:

"Neither."

The platform declared for full employment through private enterprise, an expanded social security system, retention of states' rights and called for a "square deal for labor and agriculture."

The platform condemned freezing of wage rates at arbitrary levels, approved laws protecting labor and charged the New Deal with effect financial and economic theories.

Farmers were promised freedom from regimentation, together with "an American market price to the American farmer."

Lower taxation after the war was urged, together with a constitutional amendment limiting the president to two terms.

A strong declaration was made to battle racial and religious prejudice. A permanent fair employment practice commission was promised the Negroes, together with anti-lynching legislation and abolition of the poll tax.

A ringing declaration in favor of free press and radio was adopted.

Conn McCreary Who Rode Pensive To Win In Derby And Preakness Will Be Set Down

By DAVID J. WALSH

CHICAGO, June 28.—(INS)—Conn McCreary, the skippy little guy who rode the big horse, Pensive, to the victory in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness and a rousing second in the Belmont, has been set down for the balance of the Arlington Park meeting here for what seems to have been a flagrant foul with his ride on Two in the fifth race Monday. (Quite unknown if you pardon our melon) he practically everybody in the joint, he reached over according to the testimony of a patrol judge and out the church on Al Bodou's leg during the stretch-run between Two and Blue Skimmer.

It was the same thing that Don Meade once did with a kid named Fisher. That was while Donald was riding Col. Bradley's horse at what amounted to Col. Bradley's track in the Kentucky Derby. And besides, there were even those present that time who claimed that Meade was more clutched against than clutching.

Can Ride Saturday
Be that as it might, it seems that McCreary will be permitted to ride Two again on Saturday in the $15,000 Lassie stakes, but after that, the only thing he's liable to have going for him is his feet. At least at the Arlington meeting. This, if found to be wholly correct in the light of later developments, would mean either of two things: McCreary won't be eligible to ride Sun Again in the $50,000 Stars and Stripes handicap on July 4; also he and Pensive will be separated for purposes of the $50,000 Arlington classic for the first time this year. Racing men were convinced this morning that this fact was of the first importance. But try to tell that to E. Phibbs McGuffee, the student of animal habits and distinguished exponent of the $2 parlay.

He thinks if McCreary is separated from Pensive, that's nothing. At least by contrast with the separation suffered by him (Phibbs) in connection with the capital he invested in winners that, on a play-back of the record, did not win.

Cochran took the welterweight crown from Zivic in 1941, and Fritz said he'd fight him now anytime, anywhere, "for nothing."

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Ten years ago, Johnny Broaca, Yankee, struck out five times, but pitched the Yankees to a 18-2 win over the Chi-Sox in New York.

You have to set your alarm clock for an early hour to get ahead of the Volts, a manager of the Nashville Vols of the Southern league.

Red Lucas, the former big league hurler who is staging a comeback with the Vols as a coach, relief pitcher and pinch-hitter for Gilbert, was sent in to bat in a game against New Orleans and delivered a single. His hitting was contagious and the Vols started a rally which ended in seven runs.

During the rally, Lucas came up to bat for the second time and walked, moving to second on a hit. Skipper Fresno Thompson changed pitchers, and while the new moundman was warming up, Gilbert decided to get Lucas ready to take over the pitching for the Vols.

By messenger he sent a glove and ball to Lucas, at second base, and dispatched Catcher Al Leitz to third. While the New Orleans hurler was taking his warm-up, Red Lucas was going likewise, shooting his throws from second base to the big mitt of Catcher Leitz at third.

You know how Gilbert has won many pennants and why you have to set your alarm clock early to keep up with him.

Don't say there is nothing new under the sun—or in baseball.

Here's a major league "tour" of the minors, set up during the month of July in the middle of the season. The Philadelphia Athletics are to make a junket of four cities in the Eastern league, playing at Wilkes-Barre, July 10; Albany, July 11; Elmira, July 12, and Williamsport, July 13.

President Tommy Richardson of the Eastern league, a close friend of Connie Mack of the A's, is to accompany the big leaguers on their visit to his league.

The A's have four open dates, set in the American League schedule because of the major league All-Star game at Pittsburgh on July 11. Those of the A's who may have planned nice fishing trips, will get a busman's holiday during the junket through the Eastern league.

It took a rookie pitcher, Buck Tanner of Newport News, to show the Piedmont league its first no-hit game of the 1944 season. Tanner turned the trick with a 2-0 victory over the Richmond Colts the other night.

Tanner is the loquacious rookie from Rattlesnake, Fla., who spun such tall tales in the spring camp of the Brooklyn Dodgers. Ben Chapman and his Richmond Colts will attest the young man is something more than idle chatter.

Lieut. Charles Goldblum of 1904 Carson street, Pittsburgh, former South high and Westminster college basketball star, a few years back, is one of three United States army air corps men imprisoned on a plateau in the Grand Canyon. The three airmen bailed out of a heavy bomber that had become crippled and landed on isolated Tonto plateau some 500 feet above the twirling waters of the treacherous Colorado river.

A rescue party is endeavoring to descend into the depths of the canyon by mule-pack and by using a sectional wooden boat hope to effect the rescue.

Fair Or Foul

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, June 28.—Up to now everybody has regarded the St. Louis Browns as a gang of flies-by-night who must finally fold up in the American league pennant race and this quickly end all talk of that all-American series. The Cardinals seem to be in. As things stand, Bullard, 3b, is 1-2 now the Browns may be in, too, but they still haven't quite proved it. However, neither are they fly-by-nights.

STATE ATHLETIC TEAMS HARD HIT

Baseball, Basketball, Football And Lacrosse Teams Hit With Naval Players Moved
STATE COLLEGE, Pa., June 28.—None of Penn State's major athletic teams escaped unscathed today when 150 Navy-Marine trainees left for new stations, depriving the football, basketball, baseball, tennis and lacrosse teams of some of their top performers.

The baseball team suffered severely when Third Baseman Gerry Carle, Pitcher Bill Proctor and two reserve catchers were sent to Patuxent Island for marine boot training. Outfielders Floyd Foster of Huntington and Johnny Crank of Johnstown also were sent to new Navy assignments.

Lose Varsity Ends
In football the major losses were Ed Czepak of Mt. Pleasant, and Johnny Misiewicz of Chatteroi, both ends and both first stringers last season. Bill LaFleur of Toledo, O., and Jack Chabek of Cleveland, O., both reserve backs, also went to new stations.

The 1944 basketball team was virtually wiped out when Joe Curran, Don McNary, Monroe Moskowitz and Czepak were shifted. Major tennis loss was Capt. Wally Stenger of Waynesboro, who was sent to midshipmen's school at Plattsburg, N. Y.

Among the lacrosse players moved were Dale Hamilton of Mt. Lebanon, Art Lorenz of Upper Darby, Bill Anderson of Marshall, Don Brethrick of Darby, Bob Maddock of Bloomfield, N. J., George Bishop of Baltimore, Md., and Bill Batkin of Rockaway, N. Y.

Referee Donovan 'Looks Slow'; Sues

NEW YORK, June 28.—(INS)—Arthur Donovan, the fight referee, today asked $25,000 damages from the Stadium Pictures corporation for depicting him in a "foolish, unattractive and undignified manner." Donovan objected to the "shots" of him included in the motion picture, "Kings of the Ring," showing the history of boxing for the last 50 years. Donovan claimed slow motion scenes in the picture made him look ridiculous and held him up to public contempt, causing him to suffer "a great anxiety of mind, humiliation and mortification."

IGNORANCE OF FISH LAW NO MONEY SAVER

By SETH L. MYERS

"An ounce of prevention is worth more than a wagon full of cure." This old proverb is one of the guiding by-laws in conducting this column, and its purpose is to help all sportsmen interpret fish and game law technicalities. Ignorance of the law is a poor excuse when a warden finds one violating the fish or game code. The field officer has every right to carry out the duties of office according to law. It is certainly not a pleasant duty when he must arrest a person who claims not to know that a certain act is unlawful.

Frogs In July 2
For instance, last year on July 1 the opening day of bass season several fishermen were found with frogs in their possession. They were using them as bait, but claimed not to know that frog season doesn't come in until July 2. Next Sunday, when the season again opens, there will likely be others arrested for the same violation.

Such kinds of the law is why we urge everyone to study the rules governing the game before going out fishing and when in doubt, contact someone who can give them all the information on the law.

Here's The Law

Some of the fellows were prosecuted because they thought they were allowed to catch as many carp as took their hooks. The law says 15 a day, the same as catfish, suckers and other such common fish.

This does not mean, however, that a fisherman may keep 15 of each of the law says that only 25 of the combined kinds may be kept as a day's limit.

Bait fish and fish bait seems to get some of the fellows into trouble. The law says 35 bait fish or 35 fish bait or 50 of combined species. All over that costs plenty when counted by a warden.

Study Fish Law

A new law permitting trolling from motorboats on some few certain waters is certain to get some of the boys in bad from hearing various interpretations voiced by others who claim to know the law to the letter. We suggest that in this case it will be wise to read the ruling rather than to accept verbal information from others. It may also be well to note that the law says casting from a motorboat while in operation is unlawful.

There are a great many angles to the angling law which should be well known by all fishermen who start out fishing next Saturday, as it would be an expensive schooling at from $10 to $25 an angle when learned from a warden after the rule had been violated.

Senior Committee To Meet Thursday

The scheduled meeting at Castle Hills of the Senior Day committee for next Monday night has been set, and will be held Thursday evening, June 29, following the New Castle Church Golf League session.

Next Monday being Fourth of July eve, it was decided that this would not be a good time for the proposed meeting. President Thomas H. Hitchcock and Secretary Mont Magill announced today. At this meeting tomorrow night, the date for the annual Senior Day activities at Castle Hills will be set.

Miami U. Racqueteer Beats Dale
Lewis, Meets Californian
Today

EVANSTON, Ill. June 28.—(INS) —They were looking today, without much hope, for someone to stop Francisco Pancho Segura of the University of Miami, who appeared to be on the march to his second straight championship in the C. A. A. tennis tournament at Northwestern university.

The Evanstoner, with his sizzling drives and tricky chops, went Dale Lewis of Utah State out of the play, 6-1, 6-0. In one of the shortest matches of the tournament to advance to today's quarter-final round.

He tangled today with Stanley Clark of California Tech, who moved up by defeating Jerry Evert of Notre Dame in a mild upset, 6-1, 7-5.

Ovation Given Herbert Hoover

Former President Enthusiastically Received At G. O. P. Convention

MRS. LUCE ALSO GETS ACCLAIM

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

CONVENTION STADIUM, Chicago, June 28.—Former President Herbert Hoover, who won an ovation in a speech demanding a change in the national administration to preserve American freedom, was described today as "very much interested in the GOP vice presidential dilemma."

In the early morning hours following the firm vice presidential withdrawal of California's Gov. Earl Warren, the former president, also a Californian, withheld comment on the development. But from a member of his staff came this observation:

"Mr. Hoover is very much interested in it—but I don't think there is anything he can do about it."

Sweltering Day
Confronted with Warren's determined stand not to accept a nomination to second place on the GOP ticket, the convention delegates gathered for another sweltering day during which they will name Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York their presidential candidate.

These same delegates accorded Hoover one of the few demonstrations of the firm vice presidential convention last night when he declared, "Only by a change in administration will soldiers find freedom preserved at home."

For a moment they forgot the heat and lassitude of their "charming" meeting and rose shouting their approval.

Mrs. Luce Speaks
A similar theme was offered by Rep. Clare Boothe Luce of Connecticut. Mrs. Luce denounced democratic acts which she said are "distorting our democracy into a dictatorial dumbbition."

Hoover delivered a ringing attack against New Deal diplomatic policies, declaring President Roosevelt should stay home and let Secretary of State Cordell Hull do the talking with America's allies on political matters.

Under our institutions and our public opinion, he said, "negotiation in political matters with our allies should be conducted by secretaries of state."

"The president of the United States is far more influential delivering considered judgments from the White House. The voice from that pulpit is far more potent than any belatedly in private conversations in some foreign city, or any personal diplomacy."

"President Wilson also had a great design" most of which was lost by the blandishments and pressures of personal negotiation. Every thinking American views with great apprehension a repetition of 1919. America needs a change in administration to get out of personal power diplomacy."

Hoover proposed that any post-war security organization have a general assembly with three divisions—one for Europe, one for Asia and one for the western hemisphere.

Mrs. Luce demanded a change in administration for G. I. Joe who is returning from the wars, and for "G. I. Jim, who has died on the battlefields." The Republicans are choosing a president "who need not apologize for the past."

Urge Psychiatric Nurse Training

HARRISBURG, June 28.—(INS)—Psychiatric training for Pennsylvania's 12,000 student nurses was urged today by Secretary of Welfare S. M. R. O'Hara because of the war time increase in mental disorders.

A report disclosed only 211 affiliate students were training in state mental hospitals at Allentown, Norristown, Danville and the Western State Psychiatric Hospital at Pottsville.

"The fact that students from only 32 schools of nursing can be accommodated in a field for which there has always been an unmet demand, now greatly increased by war, is indicative of the need for further expansion," she said.

Mrs. O'Hara pointed out that 114 nurses will be graduated by September 1 at the state-owned hospitals at Allentown, Hazleton, Danville, Pottsville and Scranton. About 900 student nurses will be given psychiatric training this year, she revealed.

The department has approved the senior cadet nurse program, embracing psychiatric training, at the Allentown, Warren, Harrisburg, Mayview, Torrance, Philadelphia and Wernersville state hospitals.

Prisoner Of War Is Being Hunted

BRIDGETON, N. J., June 28.—(INS)—Army authorities at Fort Monmouth, N. J., today broadcast an alarm for an escaped prisoner of war, 29-year-old Hans Bergmann, a former waiter in Germany.

Army officials said Bergmann fled from a work detail at the Deerfield Packing Co. plant at Deerfield, and indicated his escape might have been planned by a woman.

He was described as five feet nine inches tall, weighing 141 pounds, with blue eyes and dark blond hair.

CHERBOURG FUTURE SUPPLY SITE

Within 24 hours from the time Cherbourg was completely in Allied hands, experts expected its vast port facilities to be engaged in "limited" unloading of supplies and troops for the Battle of Normandy. As the map shows, ships arriving from the United States will be able to move directly to the French coast, rather than to British ports, and big ship movements will replace the beach landings.

Assert Documents Show Mussolini Stole Large Funds

By MICHAEL CHINIGO
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ROME, June 28.—Benito Mussolini, who rose to head of Fascist Italy as the righteous champion of the poor man, was unmasked today as a thief.

Authenticated documents uncovered in Rome showed Il Duce stole at least $4,500,000 from railwaymen's co-operative food stores before his fall. The papers also revealed that an uncontrolled special government fund permitted Mussolini to take 1,000,000 lire daily for the last 22 years.

Further evidence is being sought to demolish the myth that the Duce is an honest and poor man.

Other developments in the trend away from Mussolini's Italy were seen in Italian press demands for the arrest of members of a special tribunal which in recent years dealt cruel punishment to anti-Fascists.

The Carabinieri (police) presently occupy the Rome apartment of world-renowned soprano Gianna Pederzini, whom the Italian press brands as propagandist Alberto Parnace's "mistress." However, she is said to possess ample documents listing Fascist misdeeds.
